In 1999, a little girl called Emily, who was fourteen years old, used to play in the lake but one day, she never came back... Since that day, she is haunting the lake. In summer 2015 a colony settled next to the lake. Every day, children used to play near it. On 19 August, at midnight, the colony did a fire camp. While they were singing, the fire turned off and the children were able to hear a girl crying. So the leaders decided to go bed. Some hours later, one of the girls whose name was Emma, while she was sleeping, perceived a strange smell that made her get up. So because she was scared, she took her knife and opened the curtains. When she was looking outside, she saw a shadow next to the lake. Then she took the dark corridor and went down stairs. During this time, Emma heard strange noise. When she was passing in front of the mirror, she saw Emily's face so she took scare and she ran outside but she fell into the lake because it was too dark. Suddenly, the water became cloudy and something attracted her towards the bottom of the lake. In the morning, two children found her on the opposite shore, while they were swimming. She was full of hematomas and superficial cuts. Children warned the village, a survey is let but still today, nobody knows the reason of her death.

[Once upon a time, two little girls, Katherine and Evelyne, were playing hide and seek in the forest near their houses. Katherine ran away while Evelyne was count for 60 seconds. Katherine saw a weird hut and she wanted to limb in it. When she was inside, she felt bad, something took her soul hahaha. During that, Evelyne was looking for her.][Suddenly, she thought hear the voice of her friend and she followed it. She saw the shadow of her friend who was climbing to the hut. And she joined her. Then, when she was inside, the door was flung closed. She was scared but she didn't care. She looked around her, she saw dirty curtains and a knife in the wall.][She was too afraid and she about to leave the house but she was attracted by a mirror. In the unique room, a big clock rang midnight. Suddenly, a strange smell went out of the mirror. She approached and she saw her reflection which disappeared. And she felt she was able to go inside the mirror. She went through it. First, she saw stairs, and she heard her friend. He was saying to herself that she had to look for Katherine however she was not reassured.] [She went up the stairs which lead to a dark corridor. She was walking but she stopped suddenly because she saw a ghost which was saying:

* "It's my hunt whose mine since 200 years, you aren't allowed to go in, leave it now! "

* "Yes but I have to find my friend!"

* "She's already dead and you will soon be too."]

[Evelyne and Katherine never came back home. Here was the story of two little girls who met a ghost...]

In 1966, a girl called Charlie aged 27 years old was killed by knives thrown by a strange shadow while she was brushing her hair in front of her mirror. She was discovered, a few days later by one of her friends who explained to the police that she loved herself and was very narcissistic.

Sometime later, the mirror was bought by a family for their little girl called Lisa. The next afternoon when she was making her face up, she suddenly heard a strange noise coming from the curtains. At midnight, she woke up because of a strange smell coming from a dark corridor. Two days later, when she was eating her breakfast, she saw something falling from the stairs. Then, she caught sight of a little ring with engraved on "Charlie". So she decided to go upstairs and saw that something was disappearing into her mirror. The little girl was very afraid and she wasn't able to talk about what happens in the last morning to her parents. The next Thursday, she was drawing and suddenly she saw a woman in her mirror. She thought she was having an hallucination so she went to meet the ghost. The ghost noticed that Lisa had her ring so she asked her :

* Why do you have my ring ?

* I found it on the stairs, I suppose you are Charlie ?

* Yes I am, but you aren't allowed to talk to anybody about me. And you have to never ever wear my ring anymore or you will ... become like me.

* Oh my god !!!

The little girl kept wearing the ring but some hours later, she died by knives thrown by the same shadow who killed Charlie. Now, the name engraved on the ring isn't "Charlie" anymore but "Lisa".

THE END

Who Killed Miss Tee?

In the dead of the night, the 13th of Friday, we heard twelve knocks followed by a scream. It was midnight. And a crime has been done. We think that somebody entered by the window with a knife. I was too curious so I had to go into the house of the crime in order to discover what happened. There was a strange smell and blood on the curtains. I was looking for some keys and I saw that something was missing at the wall. Maybe, the murdered had stolen an expensive painting. I thought I was alone in the house, so I went upstairs and walked into a dark corridor. I opened a door and saw Miss Tee died on his bed. Whose dress was red and she had many white flowers were on the bed around here. She was dead. Suddenly, I heard a strange noise. My first reflex was to look at the door. While I saw a shadow in the stairs, the door started to slam. The shadow disappears. At this moment, I regret to have coming in the house. I was afraid. I heard some footsteps in the net room, so I went there. I saw a mirror at the opposite, and I saw someone in it. He came closer to me and suddenly, everything became black. I wasn't able to see who killed me but it' like that that I became a ghost.

Alternative end:

He came closer to me and suddenly, everything became black. I wasn't able to see who do this. The light came back; I was in the house, in the bedroom of the victim. But there wasn't anybody in the bed. Someone entered; I took a painting for my defence. I waited that the person came and when I saw her, I kill her by panic. She fell in the bed. The person had a red dress. White flowers appeared around her. It was Miss Tee. Another person came, I had to kill him too, nobody had to know that I was the murdered. I finish with him in the room of the mirror and here, I saw that it was me.

I was the ghost.

It all started in a small town named Shadow Town during Halloween, Legend has it, there have been shadows haunting the town since 1864. It was an ordinary night when suddenly something unexpected happened. It was about 4 friends celebrating Halloween while trick or treating. Their names were Theo, Paul, Léonie and Olympe. First Paul wasn't allowed to go out with his friends because he had bad grade. But Olympe came to Paul's window with a ladder to help him escape. Unfortunatley, Paul hit his head against the ladder because Olympe was a very clumsy girl. Finally, Paul was able to get out. Then, they left at midnight and joined Theo and Léonie. Léonie's jaw dropped open when she saw Paul and said : "Paul, what happened to you ? " and he replied : " Olympe, that is what happened to me."Olympe said : " We'll explain to you later !" They began their adventure. After hours and hours of receiving candy, Theo was able to sense a strange smell leading to a spooky house. Paul asked to go back home and told his friends in a terrified voice : "If our parents were here, they wouldn't allowed us to go inside "Léonie replied : «Stop being such a coward ». Olympe pushedPaul throught the door and yelled: "instead of thinking too much, get in!" She pushed him too hard so he hit his head against the wall because he was so tall. All of a sudden he was attracted by something leading to the stairs. He was walking them up very slowly as if he was mesmerised. Then he was passing throught a dark corridor and all of a sudden he disappeared. Olympe, Theo and Léonie were running after him but they were speechless when they saw him being suffocated by curtains. They all knelt down near him as their tear drops fell slowly on his body. As they were leaving the house, Olympe caught the attention of a mirror and was absorbed by it. She was screaming to the top of her lungs and Theo ran to it but it fell down and Olympe shattered with the glass. Léonie was shocked, Theo took her by the hand and said : "Let's get out of there." Léonie was running so fast that she didn't notice knives flying towards her but the courageous Theo jumped in front of her and took all the knives which stabbed him in the head. Léonie was dragging him out the door but it was too late to save him. She was the only person who was able to get out of the haunted house but she was the one who was suffering the most because her best friends died. She was so shocked that she didn't have the guts to tell anyone what happened and this story stays one of the biggest mysteries.....

The Spooky story of an apothecary

Once upon a time, an apothecary had to go into a very big mansion to estimate the price of old furniture and particularly an old silver mirror... She was allowed to stay for two weeks to analyze the knives, the chairs , ...

When she arrived, she didn't feel good: there was a strange smell which comes from the manor now she knew that it was old. When she opened the door in front of her, there was a dark corridor in which there was the famous mirror.

When it was getting late, she decided to go to bed but in the dead of the night she heard a strange noise which sounded like a howl... First she saw the knives which were flying then she ran to her bedroom but she stopped her race in front of the mirror and she saw someone who was locked in it. Suddenly she heard howling upstairs, she decided to take one of the knives which were flying and went up the stairs. When she was finally come back in her bedroom, the curtains were floating in the air. While they were flying, the clock stroke twelve. After all these phenomena, she decided to sleep but she wasn't able to, so she went into the bathroom to wash her face which was dirty. She understood that she had to run because of the mirror which was haunted. When she went into the strange corridor, the mirror was disappearing. She didn't want to stay anymore.

When she came back home the mirror was in her corridor but she couldn't see her reflection in the mirror whose ornaments were shining. At that moment she knew that she has a malediction
